Neos Marmaras

Neos Marmaras is a sea side village of Sithonia, Halkidikis middle peninsula, found at a distance of 125km from Thessaloniki. Build amphitheatrically on the top of three hills which belong to the mountain Ntragoudeli, or Itajos, the jost mountainous area of Sithonia with a height of 811m.
On the south side the village is touched by the sea and appears like an island, combining ideally the blue from the sea and the green from the mountain.
Neos Marmaras was founded after 1922 when the refugees left the island in the Sea of Marmara . Till 1967 many residents from the neighboring village Parthenonas settled in Neos Marmaras.

Read more for Neos Marmaras